

Hemoadsorption—A Novel Organ Support Therapy for Critical Diseases

17th September 2020, 15:30-16:15 (CET)

Platform: e-ISICEM satellite symposium

Chairman

Prof. John Kellum

Director, Center for Critical Care Nephrology,
University of Pittsburgh, PA, U.S.A

Futured Speakers

Haemoadsorption therapy in treatment of septic patients in the ICU
Experience with Jafron HA330 II and real-life outcome data

Dr. Franz Schwameis (Austria)

Experience of clinical application extracorporeal hemocorrection in treatment of patients with COVID-19.

Dr. Assem Nogaibayeva (Kazakhstan)

Time (CET)	Moderator & Speakers	Content
15:30-15:35	Prof. John Kellum	Opening
15:35-15:50	Dr Franz Schwameis	Haemoadsorption therapy in treatment of septic patients in the ICU Experience with Jafron HA330 II and real-life outcome data
15:50-16:05	Dr. Assem Nogaibayeva	Experience of clinical application extracorporeal hemocorrection in treatment of patients with COVID-19.
16:05-16:15	Prof. John Kellum	Discussion